

When processing a dispute it's important that we obtain the following documents to assist with supporting your dispute. This information will be used to verify your identification and addresses. In the Identity category, the item you provide MUST include your full social security number, and in the address category, it must include your current mailing address.

When providing relevant account information to support your dispute it is important to know that we provide the reporting company with all relevant and supporting documentation you submit to us during the dispute process. We request that they verify the accuracy of the information provided.

To help process your request promptly, please be sure your copies are clear and legible. Enlarging any items that contain small print (e.g. driver's license, W-2) is helpful.
